

THE ARCHER CENTER
THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS SYSTEM IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

Archer Fellowship -
Fall and Spring Semesters

This program is for undergraduate students from all of The University of Texas System's academic institutions. Students participate in the program during their junior or senior year.

Graduate Archer Fellowship - Summer Term

This program is for graduate students from all of The University of Texas System's academic and health institutions. Students are competitively selected for the program as they pursue their master's, doctoral, law, or medical degrees.

Learn more about The University of Texas System's health and academic institutions: utsystem.edu/institutions

Meet Tomorrow's Leaders. Hire Archer Fellows.

The Archer Center brings highly motivated students from across The University of Texas System to our nation's capital to gain practical experience in federal policymaking through coursework, full-time internships, and professional development.

Archer Fellows focus their academic studies in multiple disciplines, but share a unifying interest in policy and public service.

Archer Fellows have developed a professional reputation throughout Washington, D.C., for their dedication, work ethic, and high-quality performance. They are passionate about the world around them and are eager to contribute to your organization.

Archer Fellow Spring Semester

January – May

Internship Search: August – December

Graduate Archer Fellow Summer Term

June – August

Internship Search: January – May

Archer Fellow Fall Semester

September – December

Internship Search: May – August

For more information about hiring Archer Fellows, please contact:

Christine Washington, Managing Director of Programs and Head of D.C. Operations (cwashington@utsystem.edu)

Sally Lawrence, Associate Director for Professional Development and Employer Relations (slawrence@utsystem.edu)

archercenter.org

"Ours is a democracy that necessitates your participation."
-Congressman Bill Archer